PAIR HELD FOR OHIO PEN FIRE TO STAND TRIAL

Gibson and Grate Enter Pleas of Not Guilty to Murder Charge.

DEFENSE COUNSEL NAMED

Four Attorneys Appointed by Court; Trial Date To Be Set Later.

(Pictures on Page 14)

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 6—Hugh Gibson and Clinton Grate, Ohio penitentiary convicts who confessed they were responsible for the fire of a year ago when 320 prisoners perished, today entered pleas of not guilty to three indictments charging first degree murder.

The pleas were heard by Judge C. J. Randall after he had named four attorneys to defend the men.

John A. Connor and Dwight Swisher were appointed to defend Gibson, while William B. Bartels, former assistant United States district attorney, and John T. Eagleson were named to handle Grate's case.

Both prisoners said they were without counsel and without funds with which to employ attorneys.

Gibson and Grate had announced following their confessions last week that they would plead guilty if the court would guarantee that they would be sentenced to the electric chair immediately.

They asked to confer with Judge Randall Saturday, but he refused, holding that the consequences of such a plea were so great he would not listen to it until after the men had conferred with attorneys.

An indication that the pleas might be changed was given when the attorneys informed the court they retained the right to make a change later, if they thought necessary.

Date of the trial will be set after attorneys for Gibson and Grate decide upon a future course.

Will Quiz Maloney

Prosecutor Hoskins, after hearing the pleas, said he intended to further question James Maloney, a prisoner at the state brick plant, who previously said he gave Gibson and Grate the candles with which they started the fire.

He said they told him they wanted to use the candles for radio repair work.

He said that when the fire broke out Gibson and Grate told him they had used the candles to start the blaze and cautioned him to keep quiet about it.

Maloney said he told guard and

GRANT NEW TRIAL IN GARY, IND., MURDER

Judge Rules Evidence Insufficient To Warrant Conviction of Kirkland.

By The Associated Press

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 6—Virgil Kirkland was granted a new trial today for the liquor party murder of his Gary school girl sweetheart, Arlene Draves, a 16-year-old girl.

Kirkland, 21, has been cleared of the charge of first degree murder.

The court said there would have been "no question about it" if the jury had voted for conviction on the count charging murder with his first, was insufficient for conviction.

Judge Crumpacker's decision was rendered after studying the evidence for several weeks. Kirkland's punishment had been fixed by the jury at life imprisonment.

The court said there would have been "no question about it" if the jury had voted for conviction on the count charging murder while committing rape.

A crowded courtroom heard the judge read his lengthy decision.

Judge Crumpacker expressed sympathy with the family of the Gary, Ind., girl who died after a drinking party there last Nov. 29.

He said a higher court would surely have reversed the jury's decision had he refused Kirkland a new trial and instead granted him an appeal.

"I received more mail regarding this case than any other in my experience on the bench," he said.

"Ninety per cent of it was from Chicago and most of it from women."

Kirkland, a 20-year-old Gary mill worker, was convicted March 10, after a trial lasting 12 days before a male jury. Four of his companions of the liquor party are awaiting trial on charges of attacking the girl.

Judge Crumpacker named April 29 as the date for Kirkland's new trial.

The chief deputy prosecutor, John Underwood, Jr., characterized the decision today as an "outrage."

CHICAGO NEARS END OF RACE FOR MAYOR

CHICAGO, April 6—Who is going to be Chicago's world's fair mayor. Thompson, Republican, and Anton Cermak, Democrat, immigrant Czech-Slovakian who came up from coal mining to the city, are the two leaders on behalf of the government at the same time and considering each with relation to the other, and with "a common mo-

During that time, it would be the normal step for counsel to take action to prevent his going to

Bandit Thwarts Own Plans for Bank Robbery

By United Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 6—A bandit who hid out in the Whitington Savings bank all night accidentally touched off an alarm and was forced to leap through a front window early today.

The alarm roused scores of persons in the center of town, a suburb of Columbus.

Investigation showed that no money was taken, as neither the safe nor vault was opened.

S. E. Corbin, undertaker

whose place of business is across from the bank, heard the alarm.

Thompson has served twelve years. So did Carter H. Harrison, Jr.—four two-year ones and a four-year. The first Carter Harrison, assassinated on the closing day of the 1895 world's fair, served ten years—five two-year terms.

Cermak, born near Prague, Czech-Slovakia, came to America as a child; worked as a young man in downstate Illinois coal mines; came to Chicago and built a cartage business in firewood; entered politics and rose to head of the county board. He was a pupil of the late Roger Sullivan and inherited the toga of leadership upon George E. Brennan's death.

"I looked out and saw a man hit the front window of the bank with a revolver," said Corbin.

"Then he jumped out through the hole he made, got in a black sedan and drove north."

Corbin's son, Frank, fired a shot at the fleeing robber.

Takes More Than Rain To Stop White House Easter Egg Roll

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 6—Myriad colored hard-boiled eggs today were ready to roll merrily, if stopped, down the close-cropped White House lawn.

The weatherman took an attitude not many children could condone. Like a person who had no special consideration for fun, he had predicted: "cloudy with rain today."

That, however, did not stop the annual pilgrimage to the White House. Parents just packed raincoats and rubbers in the bushes, snatched umbrellas and let the rainshower do what it wanted.

By scores and hundreds of dozens came with caps and coats that the weatherman might be

HONOR GUEST

Year's Term and $100,000 Fine Against Former Cabinet Member Affirmed.

RULES ALSO ON BLACKMER

Missing Oil Trial Witness

Held Liable for Fine of $60,000.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 6—A sentence of one year in jail and a fine of $100,000 against Albert B. Fall, former interior secretary was affirmed today by the District of Columbia court of appeals.

At the same time the court upheld the decision of a lower court under which Harry M. Blackmer was fined $60,000 for contempt of court in refusing to return from France, to appear as a witness in the oil trials of Harry F. Sinclair and Fall.

Fall was convicted of accepting a bribe from Edward Doheny for a lease granted the California oil man on naval oil reserves while Fall was secretary of the interior.

At the conclusion of a lengthy decision in which he quoted liberally from arguments in the lower court case, Associate Justice Joseph A. Van Orsdel, of the court of appeals, said simply:

"The judgment is affirmed."

The decision against Blackmer was handed down by Associate Justice Charles H. Robb and upheld by the judgment of the lower court with the addition of costs.

Refers to Sinclair Lease

Justice Van Orsdel devoted a large part of his decision to the contention by Fall's counsel that it was improper to admit in the Fall-Doheny bribe case any evidence of transactions with Sinclair in making a lease of the Teapot Dome oil land in Wyoming.

"Transfer to the defendant by Sinclair of a large amount of government bonds and the alleged loan of $100,000 by Doheny to Fall to purchase the Harris ranch, the court said, "were prompted by initial suggestions from Fall of difficulties that he was having in relation to his ranch holdings in New Mexico."

The court said that although the record discloses no connection between Doheny and Sinclair, "it does disclose that Fall was considering the too lenient on behalf of the government at the same time and considering each with relation to the other, and with a common motive in mind."

MRS. ANDREWS DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

Two Companions Injured as Train Hits Car at Upper Sandusky.

NINE DIE OVER WEEK-END

Hitch-Hiker from Detroit in City Hospital with Leg Broken.

Mrs. Howard Andrews, 38, wife of a local patrolman, is one of nine persons killed in traffic mishaps in Ohio during the weekend, a check-up today revealed. Eight other lives were claimed in accidents in various parts of the state, according to the Associated Press.

Seven persons were injured in five traffic accidents in this vicinity Easter Sunday, as thousands of motorists turned out to take advantage of the first early spring weather. A list of the injured in accidents in this vicinity follow:

Three Hurt

Harry Barlicks, 60, of Marion, and his housekeeper, Mrs. M. McHaffey, injured in the auto-train crash at Upper Sandusky that claimed Mrs. Andrews' life.

Mrs. Frank Ward of Bucyrus, critically injured in auto-truck crash near Bucyrus; husband severely injured.

Joe Nevilles of Delaware, cut and bruised when Marion auto overturned and burned near Upper Sandusky.

Elmer Lounsbury, 52, of Detroit, compound fracture of leg when struck by an automobile while "bumming" north of here.

Mrs. Albert Grooms of Columbus, cut and bruised when automobile left road near Pharisburg.

Detailed accounts of the accidents follow:

Mrs. McHaffey was driving the Buick sedan in which the trio was riding when struck by an east-bound Pennsylvania freight train at the Main street crossing.

SCHOLASTIC TRACK STARS OPEN SEASON

CINDER ATHLETES TO SEEK NEW RECORDS ON OUTDOOR COURSES

Six Major Relay Events Will Attract Best Available High School Talent.

By United Press
COLUMBUS, O., April 6—Favored by warm, spring weather, Ohio scholastic track and field athletes today were preparing for record breaking outdoor cinder season.

The state scholastic track and field championships were the goal of scores of teams entered in this year's competition, but several important approved meets have been arranged to spice the 1931 program. Besides the district meets, there will be six major relay events which will feature the best high school talent in the state.

The program will begin on April 25 with three of the biggest relay events in different parts of the state. These are the Defiance college relays, the Mansfield relays and the Dayton Stivers relays. The Defiance and Mansfield meetings will draw teams from northern and central Ohio and a few teams from Michigan. The Stivers carnival will attract many southern Ohio teams.

Ohio Relays May 1-2

Following these meets will be the Ohio relays on May 1 and 2 at Ohio State university, providing a liberal program for scholastic teams. The Salem relays will be held on May 2 and the Lakewood relays on May 8.

The state high school track and field championships will be conducted at Ohio State university on May 22 and 23, and will be preceded by elimination meets in the six districts of the state. In the district meet for central Ohio will be held at Denison university at Granville, O., May 9. The southeastern meet will be held at Ohio university at Athens, and the southwestern meet at Miami university at Oxford, on the same date.

District Meets

On May 18, the eastern district meet will be held at Muskingum college at New Concord; the northeastern district meets will be held at Lakewood and Salem, and the northwestern district meets will be held at Toledo and Mansfield. The northeastern and northwestern districts will be divided into two sections because of the larger number of schools competing in these districts.

The events which have been approved by the state association for the district and state meets are the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, the half mile and mile runs, the 220 yard low hurdles and the 120 yard high hurdles, the half mile and mile relays, the running broad jump and the high jump, the shot put, the discus throw, the pole vault and the javelin throw.

Wood Prepares for Attempt To Regain Record

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 6—Gar Wood turned today to the task of tuning the motors of Miss America IX for an attempt to bring back the world's speed boat record to America.

Wood arrived here yesterday from New York and went to his home on Indian creek where he will prepare his craft for the assault on the mark of 103.56 miles an hour established by Kaye Ion, of England, at Buenos Aires last week.

The Detroit manufacturer said he would go over the Miss America IX thoroughly before he makes his trial for the record. He did not say when he expected to have the boat ready for its run.

Wood drove his Miss America IX over the speed course in Indian creek at a speed of 102.56 miles an hour March 21, last, bettering the mark set up by the late Sir O. D. Segrave at Lake Windmere, England, by a little more than three miles an hour.

CHICAGO TEAM WINS A. B. C. TOURNAMENT

Last of 2,639 Entries Rolls in Bowling Events; High Score 3,013.

By The Associated Press
BUFFALO, N. Y., April 6—S. & L. motors of Chicago, are team champions of the 1931 bowling congress. The last of the 2,639 teams entered passed by the board last night, winding up the five men competition in the thirty-first national pin classic. Five diamond medals and first prize of $1,000 go with the title. The Chicago five scored games of 992, 1080 and 934 in topping the country's best teams to total 3,013.

The doubles and singles schedule will be concluded tonight. Three hundred and twenty men will attempt to dethrone the doubles, singles and all event leaders.

Conley Praised

As an example, many close observers should turn to Capt. Tom Conley of the 1930 team was the finest of the lot, though little was heard of him throughout the season.

Notre Dame teams under Rockne first drew All-American attention in 1920, just two years after Rockne, an instructor in chemistry, succeeded Jess Harper as head coach.

Walter Camp named George Gipp fullback on his first team of that year. Gipp, who died shortly after the end of the season, a dashing, romantic figure, doubtless was the greatest individual ever to play on a Notre Dame team.

Marion U. B. Five Loses in Tourney Semi-Final

The Marion United Brethren Sunday school basketball team was defeated Saturday afternoon in the semi-finals of the U. B. church cage tournament at Westerville. Troy Street U. B. of Dayton eliminated the local team 25 to 23 in a bitterly fought battle.

The Marion five had won three games before bowing to the Dayton quintet. Parkersburg, W. Va., was defeated in the quarter-final game. Thirty-eight teams were entered in the tournament, including quintets from Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

Romine, Bob Tuttle, Dick Tuttle, Rife, Smith and Zuspan played in the final game for Marion.

Rockne Success Due in Large Measure To Creating Lack of Fear Among Players for Opposing Stars

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of a series of stories depicting the human side of Knute Rockne, Notre Dame's great coach.

By LOREN DISNEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

ALL-AMERICA reputations and selections meant little to Knute Rockne, despite the fact that more Notre Dame players were picked for such honors in the last decade than those from any other school.

Rockne's feeling doubtless was caused by his realization that football after all, was only a game. At any rate, he never ceased to warn his boys that they were heroes while winning, but quickly were forgotten when the shooting died.

Always the dominant figure, Rockne created in his players this same lack of awe in a great reputation their own or those of opposing players. He had innumerable ways of deflating the ego of a Notre Dame star.

Mostly he used the barb of wit, because it was his theory that the point of a witscrack sunk much deeper than a serious talk.

Feared No Teams

A large share of Notre Dame's success of the gridiron undoubtedly can be traced to this utter lack of fear of opposing stars.

Back in 1924, for instance, when the "Four Horsemen" beat a great Army team, the attack was centered especially on Garbisch, the Army All-American center. With such remarks as "Surely that can't be the great Mr. Garbisch" as they plunged through center, the "Horsemen" did nothing to improve the All-American center's temper, and found a vulnerable spot where Army thought itself strongest.

And it was inevitable that observers should turn to the rhythmic Notre Dame teams when All-America time rolled around. Their records made it mandatory, there are coaches throughout the country who have seen their teams wrecked by Notre Dame players obscured by the system.

Conley Praised

As an example, many close observers should turn to Capt. Tom Conley of the 1930 team was the finest of the lot, though little was heard of him throughout the season.

Notre Dame teams under Rockne first drew All-American attention in 1920, just two years after Rockne, an instructor in chemistry, succeeded Jess Harper as head coach.

ONE TITLE AT STAKE IN FIGHTS THIS WEEK

Jackie Berg Gives Billy Wallace Shot at Junior Writer Crown.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 6—Only one boxing champion is due to defend his crown this week and the consensus is he will do so without much difficulty.

Jackie Kid Berg, the scrapping Englishman, gives Billy Wallace of Cleveland a shot at the junior welterweight double Friday night at Detroit. Wallace is considered a real contender for the title, but Berg's splendid record makes him a favorite.

Toronto is the site for one of the genuine heavy brawls on the week's program. Those two insatiable shock absorbers, Johnny Risko and old Tom Heeney, the blasted rock, mix it in a 10-rounder there tonight.

Max Baer, California's heavyweight pride shows before the homefolks Tuesday night at Portland against Ernie Owens of Los Angeles. George Manley, Denver light heavyweight, meets Charlie Belanger of Vancouver, Thursday night at Denver.

A lightweight battle of some importance heads Friday night's card at St. Louis. Billy Petrolle, the Fargo express tackling Davey Lopez Tenorio, the Filipino, in a 10-rounder. Bushy Graham and Johnny Farr, two leading junior lightweights, clash tonight at Columbus.

DEMPSEY IN COLUMBUS

Youngsters Upset Pair of Tennis Veterans

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, April 6—Two tennis veterans who will represent the United States in European play this spring received a costly pre-season workout at the New Orleans Country club invitation tennis tournament, which closed yesterday as George Lott, of Philadelphia, won the singles title in a pitched battle with young Clifford Sutter, of New Orleans. The score was 64, 6-2, 4-6, 1-6, 6-4.

Lott's singles victory followed his loss with John Van Ryn of Philadelphia, his Davis cup partner, of the tournament doubles title to Sutter and the hard-driving young Ellsworth Vines, of Pasadena, Calif.

In the singles semi-finals Sutter swamped Van Ryn, while Lott was forced to the limit to defeat the rangy Vines. Sutter, playing Van Ryn yesterday, quickly eliminated him 6-0, 6-1 and then in the afternoon final fought an unsuccessful rally against an early lead pitted by Lott.

College Stars Dominate Southern Golf Tourney

By The Associated Press

PINEHURST, N. C., April 6—College stars threatened to dominate the North and South men's amateur golf tournament here today.

Tale sent Forbes K. Wilson, twice up in unspectacular but efficient blocking and turning ends.

Picking the players to fill in these holes or to supplant some of the All-American stars for an all-Notre Dame team opens the way to an argument that not even Rockne, had he so desired, could have settled to the satisfaction of all.

There are two All-American quarterbacks and the debate as to their respective abilities can be waged indefinitely. Rockne always declined to express an opinion. He pointed out that Stuhldreher, the leader of the "Four Horsemen," was a better passer, a brilliant tactician, whereas Carideo was a better kicker and blocker. They were strongly contrasting types, but both got brilliant results with fine support.

Two Great Backs

Gipp and Marchmont Schwartz, the 1930 climax-carrier, would fit perfectly into any backfield. However, there are a large number of candidates for a fourth selection, including Johnny Mohard, Jim Crowley, Charlie Flanagan, Jack Elder, Marty Brill, Elmer Layden and Joe Savoldi. Any would be entirely satisfactory.

The best combination of ends undoubtedly was Anderson and Kiley, in 1921. Conley and Chuck Collins of the 1924 array were other fine wingmen.

Among the tackles, gigantic Ted Twomey, called "Brute," perhaps was the greatest. Culver was a star at the position last year.

Coughlin in 1920, Bach in 1924 and Fred Miller in 1928 were effective tackles.

Plenty of Linemen

The wealth of materials at guard is indicated by the three picked for All-American recognition. Brown, 1923, and LaTourette, 1924, were just a shade less talented than the All-Americans.

Art (Bud) Boeringer, 1926, All-American, was perhaps the most finished pivot man of the Rockne era, but the most heroic of the lot was Adam Walsh, captain of the "Four Horsemen" in 1924, and a remarkable leader.

Making no choice to quarterback, an All-Notre Dame team, representing the Rockne era, might take the field as follows:

Ends—Roger Kiley, 1921, and Tom Conley, 1930.

Guards—Jack Cannon, 1929, and Bert Metzger, 1930.

Tackles—Ted Twomey, 1929, and Arthur Boeringer, 1928.

John Smith, guard, 1927.

Frank Carideo, quarterback, 1928.

Jack Cannon, guard, 1929.

Fullback—George Gipp, 1920.

As extensive as the list is, leading as it does all colleges for the period, it is obvious that some of the best football players of their time were omitted.

No Tackles Nor Ends

There are no tackles and no ends, and only one halfback on the first eleven. This perhaps is due in part to the fact that Notre Dame guards coming out of the line to run interference drew more attention than their running mates at tackle, and to the fact that a great lot of Notre Dame end's time was taken

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meat, Grain, Livestock

Saturday Advances Continue
New Week, but Outlook is Uncertain.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, April 6—Uncertaintude in the outlook in the steel industry cast a shadow across the morning, but the balance of the day was good for the market.

The rebound was continued in the new week for a time in the morning, but the courage of the traders was restored as U. S. resumed its advance.

Stocks in which adverse

news was expected turned downward by midday.

White, however, was light.

British and Columbian Carbon rose about 4 points, the lowest level yet noted in the present stock, which had been split up four years ago, and are as insecure.

U. S. stocks were up 2 points to new highs of 101.

Early advances of about 2 1/2 points in American

Carb and Allied Chemical were up, but fluctuated erratically.

Up 16 points in the

strengths, Eastman, DuPont,

and New York Central were among stocks up 2 points or so.

With the early spring shopping season ending on the passing of paper and steel mill activity

gains signs of having reached the peak, Wall street has entered a period of watchful waiting which is as real as the scanty amount of real hope in the market regarded as one of the most encouraging

aspects of the situation.

A broad demand

for either stocks or bonds,

as might be expected as a forerunner of business recovery,

but as yet failed to appear.

Premature bullish efforts to put up

stocks have probably hurt investors

more than anything else.

The bond market was dull and sluggish. Call money rose to 2 per cent once more, and then to the highest since Jan. 2 after renewal at 1 1/2, probably reflecting withdrawals in connection with the government offering of treasury certificates expected tomorrow.

ATTEMPT TO COLLECT DELINQUENT TAXES

Shelton Mails Cards to 1,200 in Effort To Reduce Unpaid Bills.

In an effort to collect delinquent personal property taxes due last December, County Treasurer Bert J. Shelton today began sending more than 1,200 letters to persons who have not yet paid any of their 1930 personal property tax.

Personal property tax due last December and next June is now due and payable with a 10 per cent penalty, Treasurer Shelton said. The tax due is on returns made in April, 1930.

Any efforts to collect taxes on real estate, special assessments and personal property due prior to December, 1930, has been halted by pending legislation which proposes to do away with penalties on delinquent taxes. Since the proposed legislation does not affect personal property tax due on and after December, 1930, an effort is being made to collect this tax not paid last December when due.

Books are now open for the collection of regular June taxes on real and personal property and special assessments, Treasurer Shelton announced today.

WIDEN STREET

City Starts Work Today on Project Near School

Work of widening Church street from Prospect street to Orchard street was started this morning by the city service department. The work will be done by Marion's unemployed men who will work in gangs in three day shifts. These gangs have already been chosen by City Service Director D. J. Harlow.

A six foot strip of pavement will be laid along the north side of the street in order to relieve the traffic congestion. The Ohio Associated Telephone Co. has moved its poles back several feet in order not to interfere with the work.

The smoke rolling out of the booth caused spectators to leave the theater.

The fire was confined to the projection booth. There was no damage other than that done to the film.

Heavy Snow

THE heavy snow which greeted the citizens of Marion last week awoke old memories for A. A. Austin of 418 Cherry street. Austin reported that 50 years ago April 1 the snow was so deep along the "old mud pile," which has since been numbered state route 98, that he could drive his team and sled over fences and across fields. On the evening of Marion 31 he said that he was hauling corn and fodder from Calcutta to his home which is three miles west and it was snowing so heavy that on his return trips he was forced to break a new trail.

nearest them and more too. Among the latter group would fall Marion city and county health officials.

When a recent case of smallpox was discovered, the patient was quarantined and isolated and carefully vaccinated to protect the health of other Marionites.

But the work did not stop there. Health officials learned that the patient a few days before had been visited by some Cincinnati residents. A letter was sent to the Health Commissioner in that city notifying him that several Cincinnatians had been exposed to smallpox.

If the health office in Cincinnati works anything like Marion's, there was a doctor on the job the following day vaccinating these contacts and guarding against any possible spread of the disease. Thus Dr. Siffitt and his aids not only protected the health of Marionites, as they are employed to do, but also took an active interest in the welfare and health of Cincinnatians, in which they have no pecuniary interest.

Good Fishing

IT was good fishing while it lasted.

At least that's what residents of Prospect thought last week when thousands of fish started going up the Scioto river only to be held up a short time by the Scioto power plant dam just south of the Marion county town.

Over night the river seemed to fill up with fish and residents of Prospect were not slow in taking advantage of this fact. Nets and baskets were brought into play and hundreds of fish found their way to family tables.

All went well until O. H. Neimayer, deputy game protector, was notified. He ordered most of the fish thrown back and threatened prosecution if any more were taken in the same manner.

The fishing season ended immediately.

NAME CAST FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

Meeker Students To Present Operetta Friday Under Direction of Teachers.

Special to The Star

MEEKER, April 6.—The opera "Bitter Sweet Anna" will be presented by the Meeker high school line who pummeled Arthur "The Great" Shires in the prize ring, weighs in at 280; the wife at 116. George takes a divorce because, he says, Mrs. Trafton beat him with a ginger ale bottle, kicked him out and tossed a chair and carving knife at him.

MUSKOGEE, Okla.—What happens when a freight train with pay load meets the special train of the president of the road? President M. H. Cahill of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad took the side track and was 20 minutes late.

LOSSIEMOUTH, Scotland—Decisively defeated, Ramsay

MacDonald has for consolation

the fact that it took another Scot to do it. The national game was involved. He lost a gold match to Miss Hilda Cameron, a tournament player.

BUENOS AIRES—They prepared to bury Sebastian Alvarez.

An ecclesiastic intoned the last rites; the family wept. Lo! In fainted. Senor Alvarez had been away and failed to communicate.

The family had "identified" the body.

NEW YORK—Edward W. Browning walked into the license bureau. Reporters leaped into action. "Did you get a license?" — "Yes."

"Whom are you going to marry?" — "Nobody, I'm going fishing."

Mr. Browning is the husband of "Peaches."

REduced POULTRY PRODUCTION LIKELY

This, with Greater Demand for

Eggs, Seen as Forerunner

to Higher Prices.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 6.—Poultry statistics show a favorable increase at this time but the outlook is for a much reduced production this season, according to Carl J. West, research director for the Ohio Farm Bureau. The indications for increased crop acreages suggests that seeds may continue to be low in price.

Throughout the state orders for chicks are scarcely more than half that for last year and February production amounted only to 60 per cent of last season's production.

The public has acquired an improved appetite for eggs and the consumption this winter and spring has been large. With a prospect for reduced supplies, this appetite may be expected to lead to higher prices this summer and autumn.

In his review West says:

"Poultry consumption has been heavy and there is a marked reduction in frozen supplies. In fact, the present demand for broilers is stimulating the production of chicks for broiler purposes. Out of the current crop of chicks a smaller percentage than usual may be expected to lead to higher prices

this summer and autumn.

W. W. Durbin of Kenton, a magician of countrywide fame, will be the principal entertainer on the program. The Hotel Harding or cheatre will furnish music for a dance which will follow the program.

Other features on the program

include old time music by George

Plotner and sons Dallas and La-

Verna playing the violin, banjo and guitar. Ed Griffith and family will also present several orchestra numbers.

A committee composed of William J. Johnson, Emery M. Murphy, Frank E. Kennedy, Paul G.

Boyd and Ed Hoffman is in charge of the affair.

The party will be given at the gymnasium of the plant.

DO COOKS MAKE BEST FIREMEN?

Men on Force Must Be Able To Wield Mean Skillet.

JUST as true as the adage that necessity is the mother of invention is the statement that a fireman must be domesticated. For firemen must make their own food, do their own housecleaning, and last but not least, do their own cooking.

An unofficial survey of the city fire departments reveals that each station boasts its potential chefs, and that the men are competent to meet the problem of preparing four meals in each 24-hour shift away from home.

Good Cooks Popular

One of the first yardsticks used on the new fireman is a measure of his ability to cook. If accomplished in the culinary art, he stands high in the esteem of his companions. Someone, it is clear, must do the cooking.

In Captain Owen Siffitt's shift,

there is perfect understanding when meal time draws near.

If the day's menu calls for fried meat and gravy, W. R. Isleib and C. W.

Stafford immediately step into the kitchen and starts things moving.

If pastries are to be served, Bob Swisher is the official roast meat man in the shift. And Richard Miller is undisputedly the spaghetti king.

Flapjack Expert

But when cold winter days call for flapjacks and sausage, no one but Charles Erow stirs the batter.

James Fisher can always put the right tang in the coffee. Fried eggs taste just a little better when

B. E. Sullivan does the frying.

Everyone takes a hand in the cooking in Captain James J.

Rynn's shift at No. 1. The work is distributed equally among the men,

with much of the food being brought from the restaurants.

H. E. Simpson at company No. 3

on Mark street is one of the most accomplished chefs in the entire department. His abilities permit him to humor the appetites of the firemen no matter what the dish

may be. Pies, cookies, and even cakes come out of his ovens just as delicious as from ovens of the housewife.

However, the other men occasionally relieve him for a meal or two.

WIFE OF MARION PATROLMAN KILLED

tained minor injuries when the car in which she was returning to her home with her husband and daughter Patricia Sue was overturned in the ditch near Parisburg about 6 p.m. yesterday.

The accident is said to have occurred when the Grooms' coupe was struck from the rear by another car which attempted to pass. The driver of the second car failed to stop and passing motorists brought Mrs. Grooms to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fish here, where the family had spent the day. Her condition is reported to be improved today.

Mr. Grooms and little daughter were uninjured. The car was badly damaged.

ONE HURT AS CAR BURNS

Delaware Man Injured as Machine Turns Over.

national guardsman about the candles but they paid no attention to him. He added he retold the story after James Raymond, a prisoner, had committed suicide. Raymond, accused of giving candles to the men, asked to be placed in the "hole," solitary confinement cells and the next day he was found hanging from his cell door.

Technical Points Raised

It was understood in legal circles that a technicality in the indictments might be questioned by counsel for the two convicts.

The three indictments name three specific victims of the fire as the persons murdered. One charges first degree murder with premeditation; the others charge first degree murder by arson.

In their confessions the convicts said they fired the prison with the idea of destroying unoccupied solitary confinement cells and to retard the building program.

They said they did not want to take life and had no idea men would be killed. If such a defense was upheld, lawyers said, premeditation would be out of the question.

The "arson" section of the other indictments was in question. The law defines murder by arson in a dwelling and does not specify that prison is a dwelling. Some courts, it was said, have held that a prison is not a dwelling.

WALKER BACK HOME

N. Y. Mayor Ready To Defend Office Against Charges.

By The Associated Press NEW YORK, April 6—Mayor Walker was back home today to begin his counter attack on the critics of his administration.

Tanned and energetic, he returned yesterday from his vacation in California and spent the day resting. He saw only a few friends, but those who talked with him were convinced he intended to strike back vigorously and quickly.

Two immediate tasks confront the mayor. First he must draft a reply to the charges filed against him with Governor Roosevelt by the city affairs committee. The material on which the answer will be based was assembled during his absence by his assistant, Charles F. Kerrigan. The second problem involves the reorganization of some of the city's departments, a reorganization which anticipates an investigation of the city government by a committee of the legislature.

Rev. Jack Donovan of Frankfort, Ind., nationally known evangelist in the Holiness movement, will arrive here Tuesday to carry on revival services at Second Pilgrim Holiness church. The pastor, Rev. W. C. Bowman, will preside at the services, which will continue through Monday night.

Rev. Donovan has conducted camp meetings on several occasions here.

Three Killed in Easter Shooting in Holy Land

By International News Service.

JERUSALEM, April 6—Three Jews, including a woman, were fatally wounded and five others were injured today when two unidentified assailants fired into a party of 11 near the city of Haifa.

The Haifa shooting was the only bloodshed reported over a tense week-end. Authorities had marshaled all armed forces in anticipation of trouble, as Christian, Jewish and Moslem holidays coincided.

Steel helmeted troops and machine guns were in evidence everywhere in Jerusalem over Easter. Jaffa gate, leading to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the wailing wall and the Mosque of Omar were heavily guarded.

Portugal Sends Troops To Quell Revolution

By The Associated Press LISBON, Portugal, April 6—Two batteries of light artillery and 600 men from the Lisbon garrison were dispatched today to Funchal, Madeira, to put down the revolt which Saturday night succeeded in wresting power from the military governor there.

The cabinet, after a two-hour discussion, decided to employ all means at its command to regain control of the island. Funchal reports said the populace had received the rebels' coldly and with hostility.

Robbery Suspects Trapped in Bakery

By Brook-Moore Leaded Wire CHESTER, W. Va., April 6—Two alleged safecrackers were trapped in the Howard Goddard bakery here Sunday by West Virginia state police and Chief of Police Floyd Lyons after the combination had been hammered from suspects. KING GEORGE ILL

By United Press.

WINDSOR, England, April 6—A slight renewal of King George's laryngitis complaint caused some concern throughout Britain today, but was described by the king's physicians as not at all serious.

with his announcement comes one from Paris
by Dr. Charles Felsinger, of the French Academy of Medicine, to the effect that wine is necessary to prolong life and that the dry law is causing many deaths in the United States. Of course, it is to be realized that wine production is one of the great industries of France, but why should the Boston scientist get into the wet-or-dry controversy at this time?

Fourteen Years Ago Today.

It is difficult to reconstruct the picture of the United States as it was fourteen years ago today. On the streets, in the home, in newspapers and magazines, and in the theaters
there was one harsh word standing above all the others—war. President Wilson had signed a proclamation passed by the house of representatives declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany. One of the first acts of hostility was seizure by this nation of all German ships in American ports.In Europe, America's declaration was a vivid flash of hope reviving the war-sickened courage of the Allies and causing grim lines to set in the faces of German officials. The world, literally, was at the Central powers with an intent to destroy. Millions of young American men would bring new force to the conflict; billions of American dollars would replenish the depleted treasures of the allied nations.It is significant today that as the anniversary is considered, it should provoke more thought of the tremendous loss entailed than of the glory once associated with war. The American loss of life is placed at 128,000; the British loss at 908,371; the French loss at 1,- 557,000; the Russian loss at 1,700,000; the Italian at 650,000. Millions more were wounded
—their usefulness impaired in varying degrees. Billions of dollars' worth of property was obliterated.It is well that war should be considered in terms of its irreparable losses. It discloses the most powerful argument for peace. In addition to its unpaid war loans, the United States spent $38,000,000 for World war expenses up to last June 30, a figure that will increase steadily in the years to come, with continuing expenditures for the veterans' bureau, sinking fund requirements to pay off the adjusted service compensation certificates, payments for soldiers' and sailors' compensation, interest on the public debt, and the normal expectation of new pension legislation for veterans. Reasons enough aside from the memory of the honored dead, why the fourteenth anniversary of America's decision to wage war on Germany is not an occasion for celebration, but only for sober contemplation of the folly of war.

Cost of Government Rising.

One day last week former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, uttered the statement that campaign promises to reduce the cost of government—whether reference is made to the cost of federal government, state or some lesser political division—do not mean a thing; that in every campaign the promise is held out, at least by intimation, that greater economy in the operation of government will be exercised, but the promise is never made good.The former governor simply pointed out a well-established fact, but, were there doubt of his assertion, statistics on the cost of government here in Ohio, given out by the bureau of census in Washington for publication today might be cited in support of his contention.
The bureau's summary of the financial statistics of the state covers the year ended December 31, 1929, the per capita figures therein being based on an estimated population of 6,841,800.According to the census bureau, the payments made for the operation and maintenance of the general departments of Ohio, including $6,639,234 apportioned for education to minor civil divisions of the state, amounted to $51,- 246,227, or $7.79 per capita against a per capita cost in 1928 of $6.79 and $5.50 in 1918. Payments for the operation and maintenance of public service enterprises in 1929 amounted to $165,248, the interest payments on debt totaled $808,006 and outlays for permanent improvements ran up to the tidy sum of $13,511,803.
Thus the total payments of the year were $85,731,834. Of this total $24,201,843 went for highways, the new construction cost being $16,115,811 and the maintenance, $14,086,032.To be in position to make this mighty aggregate expenditure the state raised $78,527,215, which means that the per capita revenue was $11.93 against a per capita expenditure of $7.79. The total revenue receipts, it may be noted, exceeded by $26,307,884 the total payments of the year exclusive of payments for permanent improvements and were $12,795,881
more than the total payments including payments for permanent improvements. This excess of receipts over expenditures went for debt reduction and into purchases of investments and cash balances. It is worth noting that property and special taxes represented but 17.9 per cent of the total revenue in 1929, while the percentage represented by these classes of taxes in 1928 was 28.2 and back in 1918 it was 33.8. It will be noted that the per capita expenditure went up while the per capita receipts from property and special taxes fell off. Yet, during the eleven-year period the increase in the amount of property and special taxes collected was 78.6 per cent, due to appreciated valuations. But this would not explain the increased revenue. The bigger end of it—56.8 per cent of the total revenue in 1929, to be exact—came by the way of business and non-business licenses. The receipts from business licenses are chiefly taxes exacted from insurance and other incorporated companies, the taxes on cigarettes and on sales of gasoline.
The non-business license taxes are chiefly on motor vehicles and those for hunting or fishing.
The state's share of the tax on gasoline alone increased from $15,472,000 in 1928 to $19,931,281 in 1929 or 28.8 per cent.The fifty sugar producers, controlling eighty-five per cent of the nation's supply, have been working under a general ethical agreement, although this in itself is contrary to the anti-trust laws. Yet this "ethical agreement" has been approved by the government. Unable to insist on absolute observance of outworn legislation, the most the government can do is to charge failure to observe the "illegal" agreement endorsed by government.Whatever the outcome of the suit, it will demonstrate further the futility of applying legislation that has outlived its usefulness.
Business combinations such as associations are the logical outgrowth of a period of business consolidation. They can and should operate in the interest of official business and fairness among the units of an industry. Yet the government's attitude is one of hostility, necessarily, as long as the Sherman and Clayton acts are our sole dependence.Futile lawsuits will continue until the congress revises the concept of the trust, and makes possible some self-regulation by the component parts of our great industries. Regulation of the petroleum industry has been delayed year after year simply because the Petroleum Institute's program of self-regulation has been "illegal," even when government heartily approves its objects and methods. The need is for modern legislation, not for legal prosecution.—Cincinnati Enquirer.THE MARINES AT MANAGUA.
The presence of 1,400 American marines in the neighborhood of Managua, when its buildings were destroyed this week by earthquake and fire, was a fortunate coincidence. Confusion and disorder always follow such holdouts. With the ground still trembling under their feet, with their dwellings tumbling about them, as though flicked up by flames, communication with the outside world interrupted,
a food and water shortage and the possibility of an epidemic staring them in the face, any people's nerves are likely to be shaken. The terror and confusion that followed the quake at Managua is said to have been indescribable.The marines promptly took charge of the situation. They declared martial law. They fought the fire that followed the earthquake and dug among the ruins for survivors. They utilized their equipment and supplies to relieve the hungry. Above all they maintained order and warned off bandits who might have taken advantage of the confusion to raid and loot the stricken city. The spectacle of a perfectly trained organization snapping into action has a steady effect on unstrung nerves. The Nicaraguans are an emotional people. Apparently, when they should have been fighting fire, they turned to prayer. The businesslike way in which the marines turned to and saved
what was salvagable could not fail to be a comfort and a source of hope.The marines promptly took charge of the sit-

Bryan Untied, Hero.

It is pleasant to think of President Hoover's invitation to Bryan Untied, thirteen-year-old hero of the Colorado blizzard, to spend a few days in the White House as something typically American. The lad's accomplishment was clearly deserving of it.When a school bus filled with children became stranded in the terrific blizzard that swept over Colorado and adjoining states a week ago, the driver, Carl Miller, did his best to keep them active and warm, but when the situation became acute and several of the children had died, he walked out into the storm in the desperate hope of bringing help, changing Bryan with the responsibility of caring for the children remaining alive.The thirteen-year-old lad tried, by every ruse he knew, to keep the little ones active, and when they finally became too exhausted to move about any longer he gave them all his outer clothing. When the bus finally was discovered, he was lying on the top of a heap of suffering children, the last to give in. "I'm all right, dad," he whispered to his father
one of the rescue party. "I knew you'd get me. Take the other kids first. I can make it all right."When President Hoover shakes the hand of this plucky lad it will be pleasant to know that he will be signalizing the admiration of the nation.

ARGUE MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Morrow County Judge Hears Attorneys in Embezzlement Case.

Special to The Star.
MT. GILEAD, April 6—A motion for a new trial for O. C. Romans was argued in the common pleas court of Judge W. P. Vaughan Saturday morning. Romans was convicted of the embezzlement of $3,000 from the Morrow County Farm Mutual Ins. Co. of Cardington, defense attorneys T. B. Mater and Benjamin Olds argued that they had entirely disregarded Judge's charge and that Judge Vaughan had erred in allowing an accountant to testify to certain conclusions prejudicial to Romans without introducing certain books showing the receipts of the company from 1928.

Defenses Sentence.

Judge Vaughan has not yet decided a new trial or overruled the motion. A new trial is not expected by court attaches since Judge Vaughan passed on every question during the trial. Defense attorneys argue that if a new trial is not granted the case will be carried to the appellate court. Sentence has not yet been passed by the judge.

A hearing on a demurrer to the defense of Miss Grace Lemley in her action against W. H. Holland of the Holland Co. operators of the Marion store, was heard but no ruling made Saturday.

Miss Lemley is seeking the recovery of approximately $8,000 from Holland alleging that she turned over stock in the company to him and that she was defrauded in the transaction. Another suit filed by her makes the Holland company a defendant in a similar action.

Dying Evangelist Prays For Man Who Shot Him

Congregation of Little Missouri Church Mourns Over Tragedy Involving Veteran Minister Accused in Killing.

By The Associated Press.
NEVADA, Mo., April 6—The reunited congregation of a little log church at Halley's Bluffs mourned today as a coroner's jury took up the shooting of Rev. George Rider, Kansas City evangelist, at the home of its former pastor, Rev. J. A. Brown.

The evangelist, 43, mortally wounded on a mission of peace, died here Easter, praying for forgiveness for Mr. Brown, a 67-year-old veteran of the ministry who was held in the Vernon county jail.

"I wish I was dead, too," the prisoner said.

A pall was cast over the little church in the white oak clearing. The men and women in its homemade pews worshipped in sorrow under a crudely painted motto: "Christian union without controversy."

Webster Hallett, prosecuting attorney, said the motive of the shooting hinged on the success of services Mr. Rider had conducted the last three weeks in the non-denominational pulpit Mr. Brown had resigned last December.

Mr. Rider, called to attend a funeral in Kansas City, said he sought to pay Mr. Brown a compliment in asking him to conduct Easter services. The former pastor refused.

The evangelist was shot in the back and left side as he returned with Mrs. Rider to his motor car. Dropping to his knees he prayed for his assailant.

"I would rather go back to Kansas City in box," he said, "than to leave this community while there is so much bad feeling in it."

C. P. McCumber, special sheriff and a member of the church, arrested the former pastor. Authorities said he had told several versions of events leading up to the shooting.

He was quoted as saying insistence of the evangelist on a recon-

Way's Hope Deferred
The thief? Had he returned in search of further loot, to see whether his victim were dead or to recover something incriminating that he had dropped? Had he perhaps seen me kneel to the body, and, fearing that I was not sufficient to him to identify him, had returned to silence me?

Right he have turned about and faced me with a view to robbing me of my hand, as he had robbed this unfortunate man?

Very improbable, as I certainly did not look like a person who might be worth robbing—dressed as I was for the part that I was playing.

These thoughts flashed through my mind as I rose to my feet to face a policeman—who, club in hand, stood menacingly glaring at my hand resting on the pistol.
